BEN CUMMING PHOTOGRAPHY

A pregnant woman with long, wavy brown hair is the central figure. She is wearing a voluminous, off-the-shoulder pink tulle dress that flows down to the floor. Her hands are gently cradling her pregnant belly. The background is a dark, textured grey. The lighting is soft, highlighting the woman's face and the texture of the dress. The overall mood is serene and intimate.

I provide a range of studio-based photography including family & pet portraits, professional headshots, boudoir & fine art.

I have 25 years of experience originally as a film photographer. I grew up watching my father direct actors in film studios, which significantly influenced my photography work.

Boudoir & Doudoir

DISCLAIMER:
DURING ANY OF MY BOUDOIR SHOOTS,
A FEMALE ASSISTANT WILL BE PRESENT.

Boudoir & Doudoir is a wonderful, empowering experience all people can enjoy!

Regardless of size, age or confidence, the purpose of a boudoir shoot is to express yourself within a form of intimate art.

My experience with boudoir has allowed me to understand the level of vulnerability a person undertakes, when choosing to do a shoot such as this.

Any requested shoot such as this will include a free consultation with myself and my female assistant, ensuring you feel comfortable and confident working with us both.

Use of different backdrops and costume changes can be accommodated, allowing you to create a variety of images.

Fine Art

Fine art photography uses the camera as an artistic medium to express a unique vision, message, or emotion.

Fine art is not designed for commercial purposes. It is a form of expression from both the photographer and individual/s involved.

Anyone with a passion can create something visually stunning through fine art. In this medium of photography, an individual can express themselves as creatively as they want to.

A full consultation with myself will allow us to build a storyboard of ideas before bringing your imagination to life.
